

PINKMEAD FARM EQUESTRIAN CENTRE PRIVACY POLICY

This privacy policy sets out how Pinkmead Farm uses and protects any information that clients give Pinkmead Farm, or when clients use our website and social media pages.

Any personal information we collect from our website, social media or any other client data is securely stored and not shared with third parties (with the possible exception of our insurers, our accountants, The British Horse Society and the emergency services).

Our website uses cookies which are small text files stored on your computer, tablet or phone when you visit a website. Some features that are designed to give you a better online experience only work if we use cookies. We assume that by continuing to browse our website you are happy for us to use cookies.

We use Mailchimp to send emails regarding offers and promotion to our clients. Clients may unsubscribe from our mailing list at any time by either clicking on the 'unsubscribe' button on the email or by emailing info@pinkmead.co.uk and no further marketing emails will be sent.

Pinkmead Farm is committed to ensuring that your privacy is protected.

If you have any queries or concerns regarding how your data is used please do not hesitate to contact us and we will be happy to help.

To request our full Data Protection Policy please email info@pinkmead.co.uk.
